

Adult conduct

At Rushey Green staff are here to help. Parents and visitors are expected to conduct themselves in a civil manner at all times, this is even more crucial in the interest of safeguarding children. We will not tolerate verbal or physical aggression and the police will be called in circumstances where any adult on the premises behaves in a threatening way.

Cobham Hall

Last week, eight of our Year 6 children represented Rushey Green Primary School at Cobham Hall and worked alongside a group of Year 7 children from Sweden. They joined in activities which included investigating the habitats of creatures in the local woods involving the use of footage from camera traps. Using chemical tests, they also investigated which fruit is the best to prevent scurvy. In addition they took part in a drama exercise. All the children were confident and collaborated well with their Swedish peers. The children had a great day and are still talking about it now!

Theme for April - Understanding

ANY FOOL CAN CRITICIZE, CONDEMN AND complain AND MOST FOOLS do. BUT IT TAKES character AND SELF-CONTROL TO BE understanding AND forgiving
